New York, NY (December 12, 2023)– The Winter Show announces exhibitor and programming highlights for its 70th anniversary edition at the Park Avenue Armory, showcasing exceptional antiques and fine art from ancient times to the contemporary. Taking place January 19–28, 2024, The Show includes over 70 leading dealers from 7 countries across the globe, alongside the fair's acclaimed programming and special presentations. New, returning, and longtime exhibitors pair museum-quality works with a dedication to sharing the finest in visual and material culture with an international audience. All ticket proceeds from the fair and its benefit events, including the Opening Night Party on January 18 and Young Collectors Night on January 25, directly fund East Side House Settlement. Chubb returns as The Winter Show's presenting sponsor for the Show's 70th Anniversary, celebrating 28 years of partnership and support.

"The 70th Anniversary edition of The Winter Show continues to exceed expectations with the quality of works our esteemed dealers are bringing," shares Executive Director Helen Allen. "Collectors, connoisseurs, and the curious alike will find displays ranging time, material, geography, cultures, and makers, but what unifies these diverse highlights is the unique standard of quality we maintain through our partnership with exhibitors. Alongside what will be presented on the Show floor, this year also promises to offer enlightening programming that will complement the educational goals of The Winter Show, culminating with our special exhibition Focus: Americana."

The Winter Show's commitment to quality establishes it as the preeminent antique and fine art fair in the United States. Maintaining a legacy for connoisseurship, every object that is presented on the Show floor is vetted for authenticity, date, and condition by a committee of more than 120 experts from the United States and Europe.

Special Exhibitions

Focus: Americana

To honor The Winter Show's 70th anniversary, the fair is proud to present the special exhibition Focus: Americana. Marking this major milestone, Americana has been at the core of the Show throughout its history. In celebration of America's material culture, the Show's extended exhibitor family, and Americana week, The Winter Show and East Side House Settlement are welcoming historic, integral exhibitors to display exceptional objects that highlight Americana design history.

Focus: Americana is curated by Alexandra Kirtley, the Montgomery-Garvan Curator of American Decorative Arts at the Philadelphia Museum of Art and designed by architects Frederick Fisher & Partners. Participating exhibitors include Kelly Kinzle Antiques (New Oxford, PA), Nathan Liverant & Son (Colchester, CT), Olde Hope (New York, NY), David A. Schorsch ~ Eileen M. Smiles Fine Americana (Woodbury, CT), Elle Shushan (Philadelphia, PA), Jeffrey Tillou Antiques (Litchfield, CT), Levy Galleries (New York, NY), and Allan Katz Americana (Madison, CT).

Urban Life in the South Bronx: A Photo Essay by Simon Cherry

East Side House Settlement has been an institution at the forefront of helping New Yorkers for decades, focusing its efforts on Northern Manhattan and the Bronx. As part of its goal in uplifting community members from cradle to cane, East Side House commissioned photographer Simon Cherry to document the lives of community members across the regions it serves.

Urban Life in the South Bronx: A Photo Essay by Simon Cherry celebrates the individuals that bring vitality and inspiration to the mission of East Side House, welcoming visitors to The Winter Show at the entrance of the fair floor.

Programming

The Winter Show presents a suite of public programming and special events throughout the run of the fair that offers visitors opportunities to deepen their knowledge and engage with current trends and topics. Emphasizing the Show's collaborative focus and educational approach, the panel discussions and talks are presented by experts in art, antiques, and design as well as leaders from museums and institutions. A full schedule of programs will be announced in January and available online at thewintershow.org/programs.

NOTES TO EDITORS

The Winter Show

From January 19 through 28, 2024, The Winter Show returns to the Park Avenue Armory for its 70th Anniversary Platinum Jubilee Edition. Since its beginning in 1954, the Show has established itself as the leading art, antiques, and design fair in America and a key event in the New York social calendar. The Winter Show supports the work of East Side House Settlement, a community-based organization serving the Bronx and Northern Manhattan. This year's Show celebrates the connections and love for art and design across generations, inviting new voices by saluting the heritage of objects past.

Internationally known for its rigorous vetting, the fair showcases over 70 of the world's top exhibitors in fine and decorative arts, offering works of the highest standards of authenticity and quality in the industry. Myriad works, from paintings, sculpture, works on paper, fine furniture, and design to jewelry, silver, rare books, and contemporary ceramics and glass, will be on view and available for purchase.

All revenues from the fair's general admissions and the net proceeds from the Opening Night Party and other special events benefit East Side House and contribute substantially to its robust community programming. No part of sales made by exhibitors is received by East Side House. The Winter Show runs January 19–28, 2024, at the Park Avenue Armory, 67th Street and Park Avenue, New York City. Hours of admission are Monday, Wednesday, Tuesday, and Friday, 12–8 PM; Thursday, 12–4:30 PM; Saturday, 12–7 PM; and Sunday, 12–6 PM. Daily admission is $30 with early bird pricing and $40 beginning in January. Prices include a copy of the Show's award-winning catalogue.

The Winter Show is supported by Chubb, a partner of the show for 28 years, and returns as the presenting sponsor for the Show's 70th Anniversary.

Special thanks to Bank of America, The Winter Show's Opening Night sponsor, for its contributions to the continued success of the Show as well as its support for East Side House Settlement.

To purchase tickets for the Opening Night Party on January 18, 2024 or other special events, please call (718) 292-7392 or visit thewintershow.org
