On Thursday, January 30, 2025, The Winter Show hosted its annual Young Collectors Night cocktail party benefiting East Side House Settlement at the historic Park Avenue Armory from 6–9pm. The evening honored Adam Charlap Hyman & Adam Eli and was attended by over 800 young philanthropists, collectors, artists, designers, and art, antiques, and design enthusiasts. It is a real education to have all of these galleries showing under the same roof. It has always been an opportunity for me to learn and explore new avenues of interest and collecting. We are thrilled to be honored this year and to support the transformative work of East Side House.”

The Winter Show

The Winter Show is the longest-running fair in America devoted to fine art, antiques, and design. Since it began in 1954, the Show has been the annual benefit for East Side House Settlement, a community-based organization serving the Bronx and Northern Manhattan. Along with its important fundraising mission, the Show has become a highlight event of New York City's social calendar.

The Winter Show will bring over 70 exhibitors together for the 2025 fair, presenting a wide variety of works ranging from paintings, sculpture, and works on paper to fine furniture, jewelry, silver, rare books, and contemporary ceramics and glass.

As always, the Show maintains the most exacting standards of quality in the art market, and all objects are rigorously vetted for authenticity and condition. Each work on display at the Show undergoes a thorough examination by over 120 specialists across 30 disciplines to assess its authenticity, quality, and value. This process typically includes verifying the piece's provenance, evaluating its condition, and determining its historical and artistic significance. The goal of the vetting process is not only to set an example of excellence in standards but also to provide an authoritative transparency to collectors and clients.

All revenue from the fair's general admissions and the net proceeds from the Opening Night Party and other special events benefit East Side House Settlement and contribute substantially to its community programming. No part of sales made by exhibitors is received by East Side House.

The Winter Show is held at the Park Avenue Armory, located at 67th Street and Park Avenue in New York City. General admission is $40, and includes a copy of the Show's award-winning catalogue.
